Saying of Love in Spring To Be Changed

body in Washington engaged or married in Summertime

BY BETTY BAXTER
Correspondent of The Standard-Examiner.

Aug. 19.—That old saying "the spring is the time to get married" will be changed to "summer is the time to get married" in the case of Miss Betty Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baxter, of Ogden, who is engaged to be married to Mr. J. H. Baxter, of Ogden, on September 1st.

The wedding will be a simple affair, and will be held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is a charming young woman, and the groom is a well-known business man in Ogden.

OGDEN WILL FETE KIWANIS WOMEN VISITORS

Fully 200 women, wives, daughters, sisters and sweethearts of Kiwanians of the score of clubs in Utah and Idaho, are to be entertained Wednesday and Thursday by Ogden Kiwanis women in connection with the annual Utah-Idaho Kiwanis district convention.

One of the events on Wednesday will be an automobile trip in which the visiting women will be given a glimpse of the scenic and industrial resources of Ogden and its vicinity.

On Wednesday evening there will be a dancing party at the pavilion in the grove at the Hermitage in Ogden canyon.

On Thursday noon the wives of Ogden Kiwanians will entertain the visiting women at a luncheon at the Hermitage. At this event Mrs. George H. Ross, wife of the international president, who is coming from Toronto, will be one of the guests of honor.

Another guest of honor will be Mrs. O. O. Hays of Boise. Mrs. Hays is the wife of the district governor of the Utah-Idaho division.

Kiwanians and their ladies will both join in festivities at the annual district banquet to be held at the Hermitage Inn Thursday evening.

The committee named by Dr. E. P. Mills, chairman of this entertainment, is as follows: Mrs. John Culley, chairman; Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mrs. James O'Brien, Mrs. E. P. Mills, Mrs. W. W. Hanson, Mrs. Wilford Bramwell, Mrs. R. M. Haggan, Mrs. W. J. Blackburn, Mrs. W. H. Reeder, Jr., Mrs. Wm. S. Payne, Mrs. M. Charles Woods, Mrs. Fred Vetter, Mrs. A. M. Merrill, Mrs. Harold J. Parker, Mrs. E. P. Carey, Mrs. D. J. Wilson, Mrs. E. B. Stone, Mrs. Sumner Nelson and Mrs. F. L. Clauson.

Members of the club met at the home of Mrs. Ford, 242 Tyler avenue, last week, to plan Mrs. Ford's birthday. Games and sewing were the diversion of the afternoon. Several musical selections were given. A two-course luncheon was served.
